Please respond with an essay of 350-500 words to each of the following prompts

- Why are you interested in the Life 631 program rather than simply getting a degree?
- In what ways are the co-curricular elements of LIFE 631 aligned with your formational and vocational goals?
- In what ways will your participation in LIFE 631 enhance the lives of your fellow cohort members?
- Describe an experience you have had with intentional Christian relationships (mentoring, spiritual direction, small groups, etc.) and how those experiences impacted your personal and ministry formation.

Please provide some information identifying significant ministry leadership roles in which you have served; when, where and under whom you served; and the skills, talents and spiritual gifts you demonstrated in that role.

Obligations of a LIFE 631 Cohort Member

If selected as a LIFE 631 Cohort Member, I understand I will be committing to participate fully in the following:

- Pre-cohort and Post-cohort retreat each year
- Required cohort courses outlined in the curriculum
- Weekly Journey Group led by a member of the faculty
- The corporate spiritual life on campus, such as worship and prayer services
- Spiritual mentoring with a faculty, staff, or community Christian leader
- The academic program for which I am enrolled (MACM, MDiv, or MDiv Chaplaincy)
- Residence on the Ashland Theological Seminary Campus as an active member of the LIFE 631 cohort
- Contextual ministry practice as part of my degree program (Field Studies or CPE)
