I. Course Description

This course enables students to understand the development of the church in historical context, with special emphasis on the theological, cultural, philosophical, and political factors that shaped the church.

Further Description: Lectures will be made available Monday morning of each week by 9:00am EST. An optional Zoom gathering will occur each Tuesday at 7:00pm EST. These gatherings are for discussion and questions pertaining to the readings and lectures. Please use the Zoom link above to access these conversations. All lectures and assignment submissions will occur via Blackboard.

II. Student Learning Outcomes

This course format consistently meets the same quality, assessment, learning outcomes, and requirements of the traditional face-to-face semester offering of this course.

As a result of this course, students will be able to:

1. Not assessed in this course.
2. Not assessed in this course.
3. Not assessed in this course.

- 4b. Analyze the cultural contexts that shaped the life and thought of various individuals during the history of the church.
- 4c. Reflect critically on significant primary source documents from the history of the church.
- 4d. Apply insights from church history to the contemporary church.
5. Not assessed in this course.
6. Not assessed in this course.

III. Course Requirements

A. Textbooks and Other Materials

Bantu, Vince L. A Multitude of All Peoples: Engaging Ancient Christianity's Global Identity. Downers Grove: InterVarsity Press, 2020 (ISBN: 978-0-8308-5107-2)

Dowley, Tim, ed. Introduction to the History of Christianity, 3rd ed. Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 2018. (ISBN: 978-1506445960)

Noll, Mark A. and Carolyn Nystrom. Clouds of Witnesses: Christian Voices from Africa and Asia. Downers Grove: InterVarsity Press, 2011. (ISBN: 978-0-8308-3834-9)

The student will read additional primary source materials each week as well as resources related to the historical sketches assignment detailed below.

B. Assignments/Assessment of Student Learning

This course utilizes an online component (Blackboard) as its major teaching medium. Access to a reliable computer and the internet through a high-speed means (dial-up access does not usually work satisfactorily in this course) is required, as is familiarity with the use of Blackboard (assistance in Blackboard is provided in video format through Learn AU). It is highly recommended that you be familiar with computer and web functions prior to starting the course since it is not advised to try to learn them while the course is in progress. On-line learning often requires more self-motivation than a regular class and is not suitable for every student.

Reflection Journals (30%): Submit a reflection journal by Monday at 11:55 pm each week. Among the topics you can/should include are reflections on the assigned readings (supporting, reflecting, or probing the ideas), questions you want to raise regarding the lectures and/or reading material, and/or intersections you find with the thought of the readings and our own day and/or your own context. The journal entries must be typed and double-spaced. Length: 3-4 pages.

Historical Sketches (50% total; 12.5% each): You will choose one person who was a part of the church and influenced it in some way for each of four historical sketches. You may choose the subject for each of your sketches. However, you must read at least 10 pages from a primary source<sup>1</sup> either written by the person or about him or her at the time. It is highly recommended that you choose people from a variety of backgrounds and/or theologies. (Don't be afraid to choose someone with whom you disagree!) The format for the sketches is attached to the end of the syllabus (p. 9). For the first sketch, the person should be from the 100- 750 AD and is due September 18. The subject of the second sketch should be from 750-1500 AD<sup>2</sup> and is due October 9. The third sketch should focus on a person from 1500-

<sup>1</sup> For more information about what constitutes a primary source, please see Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2018), 3.1. If you have remaining questions, please contact the professor.

<sup>2</sup> Although Martin Luther was born in 1483 (and, therefore, technically fitting into this time span), if you would like to write about him, please do so for the third sketch since he did not rise to prominence until after 1500.

1750 AD and is due November 6. The fourth sketch will be on a figure from 1750 to the present and is due December 4.

Midterm and Final Exams (20%; 10% each). The tests for the course will be completed in Blackboard. Both the midterm and the final will consist of objective questions (multiple choice/ matching/ true or false/ etc.) and one essay question. A study guide will be posted one week before each test. The midterm will cover the early church up to the Reformation weeks (1-7); the final will cover from the Reformation to the present (weeks 8-15). You will have 90 minutes to complete the posted test anytime between the times given. The midterm exam must be completed Monday, October 18 (between 6am-11:59pm) (Week 8). The final exam will be Monday, December 13 (between 6am- 11:59pm) (Week 16).

Writing Guidelines: When writing your papers, please follow these general guidelines: use 12-point Times New Roman or Courier New fonts only; use one-inch margins; use Turabian formatting for citations; when in doubt, include a citation. The instructor will spot-check for plagiarism. For this course, all papers must be submitted via the appropriate drop-box in Blackboard.

Late Policy: Papers and exams turned in after the deadline will be docked five points for each day late, unless permission to do otherwise was granted by the professor ahead of time. Late discussion forum posts will not receive credit unless permission to do otherwise was granted by the professor ahead of time.

V. Recommendations for Lifelong Learning

As you participate in this course and engage in the material, you will encounter figures who intrigue you. Make note of these and, as you continue on in your seminary career and in your ministry, bring these people along with you. Continue to investigate them, allowing their life-lessons and wisdom to permeate your walk.

Also, the Selected Bibliography below contains many wonderful resources which may further enrich your appreciation for church history. You may also want to consider consulting journals such as Church History and Fides et Historia or subscribing to <http://www.christianitytoday.com/history/>

HISTORICAL SKETCH FORMAT

I. Context (2-3 paragraphs)

What are some events/ church happenings/ theologies that may have shaped the life and ministry of the person? Briefly describe the culture of the day. (NB—this section should not include details about the person's life.)

II. Background information (1-2 paragraphs)

Describe what is known (or in some cases, may be logically inferred) about the person's life before he/she became prominent (such as details about the person's family life, childhood, education/ training, etc.).

III. Ministry information (3-4 paragraphs)

Discuss aspects such as calling into ministry, distinctive characteristics, the primary influencers in the person's life, obstacles in ministry, climactic moments, distinctive thoughts/ theologies, writings, etc. You decide what is most important to include.

IV. Present Day Applications (2-3 paragraphs)

With an understanding of the cultural differences, what are some aspects of the individual's life that can be applied to ours? Think of both positives and negatives (i.e., things to emulate and things to avoid). You may use first person here, but ONLY here.

V. Bibliography

You should use at least three scholarly secondary sources and only one may be from the internet (the Dowley text does not qualify as one of these sources, though you should include it in your bibliography if you did use it as a source). You are strongly encouraged to reference journal articles when possible. Additionally, one source must be a primary source (this may be from the internet).

\**The total page count should be 3-4 pages total, double spaced****

Seminary Guidelines

A. ATS Academic Integrity Policy

Ashland Theological Seminary expects each student to uphold the Seminary's core value of academic excellence by contributing to an environment that is both challenging and supportive. In such an environment a student will neither seek nor offer improper assistance. All students have an obligation to be forthright in their academic endeavors and to respect ethical standards. The work that one submits for academic evaluation must be one's own, unless an instructor expressly permits certain types of collaboration. Academic integrity requires that each student will use one's own capabilities to achieve one's fullest potential and will neither offer nor accept aid that is not in keeping with regularly accepted standards of academic integrity. Failure to conform to this conduct shall constitute academic dishonesty. The full Academic Integrity Policy statement may be found in the Student Handbook.

B. ATS Grading Scale

Grade	Quality	Percent	Description
A	4.0	97-100	Superior achievement of course objectives, diligence and originality, high degree of freedom from error, outstanding evidence of ability to utilize course knowledge, initiative expressed in preparing and completing assignments, positive contributions verbalized in class.
A-	3.7	92-96
B+	3.3	89-91
B	3.0	86-88	Good work submitted, commendable achievement of course objectives, some aspects of the course met with excellence, substantial evidence of ability to utilize course material, positive contributions verbalized in class, consistency and thoroughness of work completed.
B-	2.7	83-85
C+	2.3	80-82
C	2.0	77-79	Acceptable work completed, satisfactory achievement of course objectives, demonstrating at least some ability to utilize course knowledge, satisfactory class contribution.
C-	1.7	74-76

D+	1.3	71-73
D	1.0	68-70	Passing but minimal work, marginal achievement of course objectives, poor performance in comprehension of work submitted, inadequate class contributions.
D-	0.7	65-67
F	0.0	Below 65	Unacceptable work resulting in failure to receive class credit, inadequacy of work submitted or of performance and attendance in class.

C. Attendance

According to the Student Handbook, attendance at all class sessions is expected, unless the professor has been notified in advance and has approved the absence. Students should be on time and should stay through the duration of all classes. Any student missing more than six class hours will be required to do additional work, receive a lower grade, audit or withdraw from the class, or be penalized otherwise at the discretion of the professor.

D. Attendance Reporting:

Students are required to participate in a course related activity in the first and third weeks of the course. Students may be administratively withdrawn from the course and/or may lose financial aid benefits if a qualifying activity has not occurred between the student and the course work or faculty within the first three days of the course. Simply logging into a course online via the Learning Management System (LMS) is not considered a qualifying activity.

Student non-participation during the first 8 days of a course may initiate the administrative course withdrawal process. Student non-participation, mid-course, for 14 consecutive days may also initiate the administrative course withdrawal process.

According to policies and procedures set forth by Ashland University's Department for Veterans' Services, AU will grant any service member requiring more than a 30-day leave a release from coursework. Contact the Office of Veterans' Services for more information regarding this process.

E. Accessibility Resources and Accommodations

It is Ashland University's goal that learning experiences be as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience physical or academic barriers based on a disability, please contact the Student Accessibility Center at 419-289-5904, or send an email to au-sac@ashland.edu. The Student Accessibility Center office and the course instructor will work together in order to establish accommodations and to meet your learning needs.

F. Ashland Multiliteracy Center (AUMuLit Center)

The AMuLit Center can help you brainstorm, draft, and revise your writing assignments in your graduate Seminary classes. Masters and doctoral qualified consultants can advise you online or in person. For more information click here.

- Receive one-on-one feedback from an AMuLit Center graduate consultant on any project that involves communication - essays, speeches, group presentations, lab reports, poster presentations, and much more!
- Our default type of appointment for graduate students is conducted asynchronously via email. In other words, after you make an appointment through our online scheduler (WOnline), you attach a draft to the appointment, then within 48 hours of the scheduled appointment, one of our consultants reviews your paper and emails you feedback. We also offer synchronous (live) appointments via Zoom by request.
- To schedule an asynchronous email appointment, go to www.ashland.mywconline.com (you will need to register for an account the first time you use the scheduler).
- To schedule a synchronous (live) Zoom appointment, please email us at amulitcenter@ashland.edu.
